Asha, a 28-metre Maiora, is in perfect condition following a recent refit that extended her bathing platform to enable it to accommodate two sun chairs and an sun shade. The refit also installed zero speed stabilisers and underwater lights, and added a spa pool and a television to the flying bridge, which is now a fantastic centre of outdoor living. On the open, aft portion of the main deck a new table with a sofa and chairs offers comfortable dining for eight. A further sunbathing area on the foredeck adds flexibility as well as offering a quiet to retreat with a good book.

Asha's saloon, which now features new carpets and soft furnishings, features a large, comfortable sofa and a dining table to accommodate for the yacht's eight guests. These are accommodated in four cabins - three doubles and a twin, which are all equipped with television, DVD players and iPod connections. The master cabin offers a queen size bed, sofa, walk in wardrobe and a bathroom with two basins and a bath. The VIP is also fitted with a queen size bed, a wardrobe while its en suite offers a shower, as does the third double. The adjacent twin stateroom has two single beds and an additional pullman, which can bring the total complement to nine.
