SWAN (previously Lyana) is a Benetti Yacht, launched in 2011 with zero-speed stabilizers, an eight-person hot tub on her sundeck, a gymnasium with a rowing machine and treadmill, an onboard masseuse, a beach club off the stern, a professional-quality discotheque setup on the top deck, a high-speed satellite communications system, a big-screen projector on the aft deck, and a professional crew of 15. The interior decor includes substantial artwork by masters including Dali and Botero. Twelve guests are accommodated in six lavish cabins, including a master suite with views over the yacht's bow.

While most of the Mediterranean yacht charter vessels built by the Benetti shipyard feature the interior styling of Zuretti Interior Design, SWAN features the sophisticated signature of Pierre-Yves Rochon, Paris. Beige and crème upholstery is accented by dark wood furniture and joinery throughout the superyacht.

At last all Western Mediterranean yacht charter destinations are within reach as this yacht can cruise at 15 knots. In the winter months, this 60m / 200ft vessel will be available to charter in the beautiful islands of the Caribbean.
