The Trinity yacht UNBRIDLED features interior design by Patrick Knowles and has a refined traditional ambiance, boasting exquisite inlaid woods, luscious marbles and intricate finishes. The attention to detail has created a truly unique and intriguing atmosphere. Guests have plenty of indoor options including a generous salon, elegant formal dining room, well-appointed skylounge and spacious accommodation.

The salon is on the main deck of the UNBRIDLED motor yacht offering ample seating in an inviting social atmosphere, surrounding a generous coffee table. Forward of the lounge, the formal dining space is impressive and seats all guests comfortably. On the main deck, forward of the salon and dining, is the full beam master cabin offering a king size bed, his and hers wardrobes, study and spacious en-suite facilities. Further guest accommodation is below decks in 2 VIP and 2 guest cabins. An additional guest cabin is available on the main deck, in a convertible office to twin or double layout, complete with en-suite facilities.

M/Y UNBRIDLED boasts a fabulous skylounge ideal for entertaining, offering idyllic views from panoramic windows, plush seating, coffee tables, games tables and elegant wet bar.

The exterior of the luxury motor yacht UNBRIDLED offers plenty of relaxing options, including 3 alfresco dining choices. The main aft deck is shaded and boasts a formal alfresco dining table. Above, the skylounge opens out on a generous bridge deck, with a further alfresco dining option, wet bar and outdoor lounge seating, ideal for formal and informal occasions.

Forward on the bridge deck, a Portuguese style deck boasts an intimate sunpad, seating and optional shade. Crewed megayacht UNBRIDLED features a large sundeck. Here guests may wish to relax on the full beam sunpad, take a dip in the deluxe Spa Pool tub, work out on the gym equipment, dine alfresco, sip an aperitif from the wet bar or simply sit back and soak up the warm sun.

UNBRIDLED boasts a fabulous inventory of water toys, all effortlessly accessed from the extended swim platform and teak beach.

Thirteen dedicated and discrete crew are on hand to ensure guests aboard the superyacht UNBRIDLED enjoy a relaxing and unforgettable luxury charter yacht experience
